

Synopsis

What to do when you're sad because you've lost your loved one... in a former lifetime?

That is the subtle question which spirited Laura, a dreamer, rebel and free-thinker, must answer. She feels something is missing, without being able to identify the cause, making her love life resemble a chaos of fear, escapes and sublime renunciations.

Laura's loves will remain complicated until she restores contact with her lost soul partner, who is also trying to communicate with her in every natural and supernatural way possible.

By the Waterside is a funny, poetic and interactive tale. Laura and her Guardian Angel take us to the heart of a delightful odyssey, between fairytale and clown theater.

It's a story of sentimental education, which deals with a subject that concerns us all, but that no one can control – we each do our best to find the keys!

AUTHOR'S COMMENT

How to speak of Love to everyone, using a mixture of forms and styles, and not fall into expectations and platitudes?

Fresh, rhythmical, comic turnarounds uphold a surprising, funny text, using vivid and poetic language.

This is a light-hearted show to be played anywhere, sometimes in the most unlikely places.

Our other shows :

Romeo and Juliet – the forbidden version :

A crazy comedy, with a frenzied rhythm, which plays on the gap between the era when the action takes place and the very modern behavior of the protagonists.

Nat-Ure : a fantastic, initiatory tale for young and old, where theater, video, visual effects, dance, puppets and song join together. All done with a good sense of humor.

Created in Paris suburbs in 2008, the company l'Enfant Bleue (Blue Child) has recently moved to the Ardeche area in France (near Lyon).

Regulars at the International Theater Festival Off in Avignon, it produces in Paris too (at Point Virgule and Grand Point Virgule) and throughout France.

LAURA

Laura is a child with a connection... a connection to everything that doesn't talk ! Her stuffed animals, the flowers in the garden, the Moon... Perfectly at home in her polyphonic, fully alive world, she is silent in society and that worries her parents.

Her first love story... is complicated !

From her magical relationship to the world, Laura inherits an eternal romanticism, a poetic vision and is extremely demanding of the realities of love and life. But she is also immensely nostalgic, which weighs her down and pushes her towards impossible love affairs.

When will she finally find the key to the mystery?

HIM

A spirit full of spirit, on the other side of life.
He is our storyteller.

A two legged book that tells Laura's epic story in a delicious and witty manner. Poetic, with a feeling for turning points, this polymorphic entity takes on many faces, with a sharp sense of the grotesque and an undeniable love of words.

He is above all the bearer of the young girl's secret...
He continuously attempts to communicate with her.

Once again, nothing is simple.

*"Telle me about Love"
a genuine sentimental comedy*
